TACO TAKEDOWN 2026

Sponsorship Opportunities

Dear Friend,

We invite you to partner with Journey U for Taco Takedown 2026, our Spring fundraiser hosted at Wild Stallion Vineyards. This family-friendly event brings our community together for great food, meaningful connection, and a shared purpose: helping people experience healing and restoration in Christ.

Your sponsorship directly fuels life change. Because of generous partners like you, individuals and families are finding freedom from emotional and spiritual wounds that once felt insurmountable.

About Journey U

Since 2007, Journey U has helped people break free from destructive emotional and spiritual patterns when traditional support feels out of reach. Through Trace Modeling, our biblically grounded, trauma-aware, self-paced program, individuals are guided step-by-step to uncover root causes, renew their minds, and walk in lasting freedom.

Our mission is simple: remove every barrier to healing and equip the body of Christ to live whole, confident, purpose-filled lives.

Impact Story: Michelle's Testimony

My name is Michelle Palmer and because of generous donors like you, I have overcome emotional and mental health challenges, in addition to the physical and spiritual challenges. I am actively seeking, processing, and doing the work every day through Journey U, with its mentors, sessions, and the Trace Modeling Curriculum.

I was an unhealthy woman in every aspect of my life. I had a specialist for everything from an allergist to a cardiologist. The days were long. I was in chronic pain, filled with depression, anxiety, chest pain, and the blood was not flowing to my heart properly. The weeks and months ahead became insurmountable packed with tests, appointments, medications, procedures, doctors, therapy, and multiple surgeries. This was what my life had become.

During this time, I was trying to grow while I was trying to heal. Trying to forgive while trying to grieve. Trying to search while trying to let go. Trying to love others while remembering how to love myself by setting and maintaining healthy boundaries. I am seeing the fruit in improved relationships and mutual respect. Today, I am walking with Him and the purposes of His kingdom and my place in it.

Thank you,
Michelle Palmer

POLICIES AND LIABILITIES

Sponsorships are non-refundable. All sponsor contributions directly support Journey U's mission and event operations and therefore cannot be refunded for any reason once submitted.

Liability: Sponsors participate at their own discretion. Journey U and Wild Stallion Vineyards are not liable for loss, theft, injury, or damage occurring before, during, or after the event. Sponsors must comply with all venue rules, regulations, and event guidelines.

EVENT CANCELLATION BY JOURNEY U

If Journey U must cancel the Taco Takedown due to extreme circumstances (e.g., severe weather, venue issues, public safety concerns), Journey U will:

- Provide as much advance notice as possible
- Communicate updates through email, website postings, and social media

This is a rain-or-shine event, and normal weather conditions will not result in cancellation. Only conditions deemed unsafe by the venue or event leadership will trigger an event cancellation.

Because sponsorships directly fund the mission and pre-event expenses, sponsorships remain non-refundable even in the event of cancellation. Sponsors will still receive digital recognition and any applicable benefits not dependent on the physical event.

THANK YOU!

Thank you for supporting Journey U and being part of Taco Takedown 2026!
